

INDIANA'S BIG DAY.

Thousands of Hoosiers Attend the World's Fair.

STATE BUILDING DEDICATED.

Ex-President Harrison Delivers the Address of the Day—"German Day" Was Also Celebrated at the Exposition Grounds—Other World's Fair Information.

CHICAGO, June 16.—Hoosiers by the thousands came from their state yesterday to assist Governor Matthews and ex-President Harrison in the dedication of the Indiana building. People from sister states and foreign countries were attracted to the building by the expectation of seeing and hearing the only living ex-president of the republic and they joined in giving him a rousing American welcome.

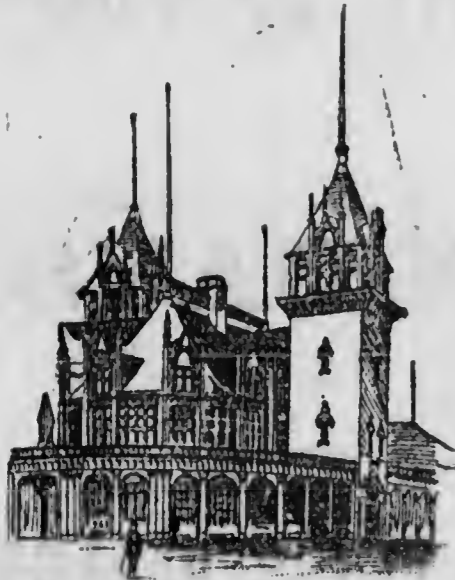

None of the state buildings are constructed to accommodate large crowds inside, so the exercises were held on the broad piazza which surrounds the building. The invited and the uninvited visitors were wedged together, and even Mr. Harrison, who arrived late, was forced to push his way after President Higginbottom before reaching a seat. But he was only a Hoosier citizen and he took the situation good humoredly.

His address after State Commissioner B. F. Havens and Clement Studebaker had spoken, was a splendid patriotic and inspiring effort. He was vigorously applauded when he said: "I congratulate Chicago on what she has done here. No other city has ever done so much and may never again. When this scheme was proposed, I thought New York was the only city which could produce a world's fair. I confess my mistake. I now believe Chicago is the only city in the world."

The ex-president struck a sympathetic chord when he said he had no patience with those who came here to carp and criticize.

A large silk flag was presented to the state by Perry D. Creager, on behalf of the public schools of Kendallville.

WORLD'S FAIR—THE INDIANA BUILDING.

The building was erected with a view of furnishing a home for Indiana people. The architecture is French gothic. It is three stories in height and a porch 80 feet in width surrounds the building. Several hundred chairs have been placed on the portico for the accommodation of visitors. There are no exhibits in the building. The first floor being arranged into parlors and reception rooms. Hanging on the walls are portraits of noble men and women of Indiana, including Hendricks, Morton, Gresham, ex-President and Mrs. Harrison and others. On the second floor are the offices of the commissioners and reading rooms. The entire third floor is set apart for a lunch room.

STATUE AND HALL OF THE INDIANA BUILDING.

The building is near the Fifty-seventh street entrance and is in easy access to persons visiting the fair. Three fine marble statues also ornament the interior of the main room of the Indiana building. They are the work of young Indiana women, and all are female figures typical of the progress of the state. The most noteworthy of the trio is that carved by Miss Frances Goodwin of New Castle, and represents the progressive intellectual woman of today. Connoisseurs have pronounced it a noble work of art. The other two statues are by Miss Jeannette Scudder of Terre Haute and Miss Retta Matthews of Indianapolis. The former typifies the beauty and purity of womanhood, the latter that of the home circle.

German Day Celebrated.

German day at the exposition was gloriously celebrated. The weather was perfect, the crowds immense and the enthusiasm most marked. From noon until late in the evening German bands and drum corps at the head of the bands of shouting Teutons marched through all parts of the park flying the colors of the United States and Germany.

The united singing societies of Chicago entertained a mighty multitude, 1,000 voices blended in the singing of "Germany All Over" while the "Wacht am Rhine" evoked fervid delight. Carl Schurz delivered a scholarly oration, in which he paid a hearty tribute to the German emperor and his representative at the fair, Herr Wermuth.

Arkansas Day, Also.

Yesterday was the 57th anniversary of the admission of the state of Arkansas to the Union, and it was observed at the world's fair by the dedication of the state building. A large number of residents of the state, and of its former sons and daughters now residing in this city, participated in the exercises.

AWARD QUESTION SETTLED.

Census Superintendent Porter's Advice, Greatness of the Fair.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Robert P. Porter, superintendent of the census, who has just returned from Chicago, where he went as an expert to give advice on matters pertaining to the work of the committee of awards, says: "I think the troubles which seemed so threatening because of the plan proposed by John Boyd Thatcher for making the awards have been adjusted satisfactorily. The system has been changed from the original plan of having a single juror for each award, so that two or three jurors may now be had if desired."

"France, which withdrew from competition because that government did not favor Mr. Thatcher's scheme, may be induced to re-enter the lists. If she does not, let the committee say: 'Very well. If you are unwilling to compete with this magnificent display made by Germany let us know that fact and publish it. That will be satisfactory.' I think France will decide to compete. As for the fair itself, it is great. The visitor is so overwhelmed by the magnificence of it that he fails to grasp it. A hundred thousand visitors on the grounds are lost and the place seems solitary and lonesome. Two hundred thousand visitors simply creates an impression that the place is doing an average business."

Sensational Rumor.

COLUMBUS, O., June 16.—It is rumored that there is a sensational story back of the assault made on Bill Elliott by Convict Varney at the penitentiary. The report is that a big plot for a wholesale escape had been laid, which included the murder of Warden James and Deputy Warden Playford and any guard who might get in the way. Elliott got wind of the plot and revealed it and was marked for vengeance by the conspirators. The penitentiary officials decline to furnish any information, but there is good ground for a belief that the rumor of a plot by a lot of desperadoes has ample foundation.

The Case Against Arthur.

CLEVELAND, June 16.—Judge Ricks of the United States circuit court has fixed the date for the trial of the most important case on his docket. It is that brought against Chief P. M. Arthur of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, for $200,000 damages for alleged encouragement of the recent strike on the Ann Arbor road at Toledo. A special assignment of the case has been made for Monday, Sept. 18. It will be heard at Toledo before a special jury. The case has provoked widespread discussion.

A Farmer's Misfortune.

CHAGRIN FALLS, O., June 16.—Edward McConley's barn, the outbuildings and his dwellinghouse burned yesterday. The horses and cows were saved. Seventeen hogs and the contents of the barn, farming implements and all the household goods were destroyed. A falling timber struck McConley, rendering him senseless, and he would have perished in the flames had not a passerby rescued him. No insurance. The family is destitute.

The Women Will Not Meet.

NEW YORK, June 16.—A special to The Tribune from St. Paul, says: The congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which was to have been held here on June 20, has been given up on account of the illness in the family of Mrs. William Cabell of Washington who was to have presided over the deliberations of the congress. The wife of Vice President Stevenson telegraphed that it would be impossible to be present and that was another reason for giving up the congress.

Sugar Refinery Burned.

LONDON, June 16.—The sugar refinery and stores owned by David Martineau & Sons, limited, located at Canning Town, an eastern suburb of London, were burned last night. The refinery was 10 stories high, and contained a quantity of heavy machinery. The flames spread to the engine and boiler houses adjoining the refinery and these, too, were destroyed. The loss is placed at fully £50,000.

Why She Retires.

DULUTH, June 16.—The information has become current here that Marie Wainwright, who intends retiring from the stage at the close of the present season, is to marry in the near future Paul Schultz of Tocana, a millionaire and one of the best known men on the coast.

NEW INQUEST HELD.

Another Investigation in the Washington Disaster.

THE REAL CORONER PRESIDES.

The Old Jury Resummoned, and One of the Bodies That Had Not Yet Been Buried Was Viewed by That Body—The Evidence Taken at the First Day's Session.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—In accordance with the decision of Chief Justice Bingham, Dr. Patterson, the coroner of the district, began a new inquest yesterday over the remains of the victims of Friday's disaster.

There was a smaller attendance than on previous days at Willard's hall, where the inquest was held, because most of Colonel Ainsworth's uninjured subordinates were at their desks in the new quarters. Interest in the session centered in the belief that Colonel Ainsworth would be present to insist that he had a right to appear, but the crowd was disappointed.

R. Ross Perry, Colonel Ainsworth's attorney, whose attempt to address the deputy coroner during the session of Monday precipitated the outbreak against his client, was in the hall a few minutes before the inquest began, but he withdrew before Coroner Patterson rapped the jury to order.

As previously decided by Dr. Patterson, the old jury was resummoned for the inquest, and the coroner and the six jurymen went to Glenwood cemetery and viewed the body of Frederick P. Loftus, one of the victims whose body lies in a receiving vault there.

The proceedings were devoid of sensational character, the evidence being directed exclusively to the ascertainment of the cause of the building's collapse.

Colonel Ainsworth addressed a letter to Coroner Patterson, complaining that the jury were prejudiced against him by the testimony of disaffected clerks and the riotous proceedings of the previous illegal inquiry, and urging his right to be present by counsel and to cross-examine the witnesses. Coroner Patterson refused the request. Expert testimony as to the building was taken up to the recess at 1:20 p. m.

The first witness was James L. Parsons, a contractor and builder, who testified that he had examined the old theater last month with a view to submitting a bid for making the proposed alterations. "There were no evidences whatever," he said, "of any unsafety in the building for the purpose for which it was occupied. The ceilings were all right, and there was nothing indicating any weakness."

Mr. Edward Clark, the architect of the Capitol, told of the alterations of the theater building which he made in 1865. The building was then perfectly safe. In 1888 he made an examination of the structure and thought it safe.

Thomas B. Entwistle in speaking of buildings of the district, said he was called upon about five years ago to go over the building and give his opinion as to its safety. The result of that examination was that he found the floor and walls perfectly safe.

Francis Sasse, the engineer of the old theater building, said he has held that office since March 24, 1889. He made the specifications for the electric light plant. He was a mechanical steam engineer but not an architect. Cross-examined, the witness said he considered himself competent as a mechanical engineer to draw the plans, but did not consider himself competent to say how the work should be done.

Examined by Attorney Thomas, Mr. Sasse said he did not consider himself a competent man to superintend the work; he relied on the competency of Mr. Dant, the contractor. He felt no danger, and was in the excavation a few minutes before the floors fell.

James H. Dony, the compositor who set up the original text of the specifications for the electric lighting plant, was called to identify the handwriting in which the specifications were written. He said he thought half of them were typewritten and the rest in Colonel Ainsworth's handwriting.

A bricklayer of 40 years' experience, David L. Cissell, who had erected many large buildings in Washington, testified that he had gone into the old theater building two days previous to the accident, with a view to making an estimate on doing the brick work. The excavation was going on at the time. He noticed a man underpinning a wall, but saw no evidence of shoring, although he did not look for it. Since the collapse he made an examination of the building and concluded that the unskillful manner in which the work was being done caused the accident. The work, he said, was "about the worst he ever saw." He had examined the character of the cement used, and in his opinion it was very poor. He believed the work should not have been done at all. Mr. Cissell considered that there would have been no danger to the clerks if the work had been done properly.

Another builder that testified was Columbus Thomas, with 30 years' experience. He had been a bidder for the work of putting in the electric light plant, his bid being about $1,500, of which $800 was for shoring. The whole cause of the collapse was the failure to underpin the north pier.

Captain Martin R. Thorpe, chief of the supply division, war department, who had been asked by Ainsworth to take a look at the work for the purpose of taking out a boiler, said it looked all right to him.

Minister to Hawaii.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 16.—Thomas T. Crittenden, United States consul general here, has been offered the post of minister to Hawaii. He was at first inclined not to accept the mission, but he is now considering the matter.

OFF FOR A THREE YEARS' CRUISE.

The Cruiser Chicago Sails—Rear Admiral Erben Talks.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The United States cruiser Chicago, flagship of the European squadron, sailed from this port Thursday for Galway, Ireland. She carried 410 officers and men, flies the pennant of Acting Rear Admiral Henry Erben and is commanded by Captain A. T. Mahan.

Admiral Erben has been ashore three years. This is his first flag command. The last time he was at sea he was a captain. He was seen by a reporter just before sailing. He said: "I shall visit all the principal Irish ports, starting in with Galway. Then I shall run over to Penzance and the Chicago will not be far distant when the international yacht races are sailed in British waters. If the Navahoe is fortunate enough to win the men aboard the Chicago will be heard from."

"Many of the Irish ports have never been visited by a United States warship. The corvette Enterprise visited the English coast some four years ago, but prior to the Enterprise's visit American men-of-war were seen in English waters only at long intervals. During the summer and early fall I shall cruise in and around the British isles and in the North sea, and then, late in the fall, I shall run down to the Mediterranean and cruise as far east as the Levant. Early next spring we may run down to Zanzibar, and as summer approaches work our way into northern European waters again."

"The Chicago will be kept constantly cruising, and so long as I have command of the European squadron, as many ports on the station will be visited as is practicable."

Her passage across will occupy about 15 days. In well posted naval circles it is believed the Chicago will be ordered home before the expiration of her three years' cruise. In this event Admiral Erben may be expected to shift his flag to some one of the new warships now in American waters. The opinion is general that the armored cruiser New York will be ordered to the European station early in 1894. In such case the New York will be the next flagship of the European squadron.

REPUBLICAN CLUBS.

The Executive Committee of the National League Meets in Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 16.—The executive committee of the National League of Republican Clubs, comprising one member from each state, selected at the recent Louisville convention, met at the Grand Pacific hotel and will continue in session until Saturday evening.

The purpose of the meeting as expressed in the call is to elect a secretary, fix upon the place for the national headquarters, and to lay out a plan of educational campaign through the club system of the Republican party. Hon. W. W. Tracy of Springfield of the national organization, presided. The day's session of the committee was taken up in the hearing of representatives from the various states represented. Messrs. Smith of Alabama, Bell of North Carolina, Cooper of Arkansas, and Ashcroft of Tennessee, reported that the Populist campaigns of the last year had done much to break into the solid south, and that Republican success in many of the states was possible.

The committee will give considerable attention to this matter by the appointment of a committee of nine to make a thorough canvass of the condition of the party in the south and to report upon a special campaign of organization in that section.

There are four candidates for the secretaryship to succeed Mr. Humphrey of New York, who resigns to look after his business enterprises. James E. Burke of Pennsylvania, ex-Congressman Allen of Michigan, W. R. Riley of Kentucky, and Henry Teipke of Rhode Island.

The western men favor Chicago as the headquarters of the league, and they are confident of a majority as against the supporters of Washington.

The President at Home.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The president remained at his country seat yesterday. Secretary Lamont went out there early in the morning and remained with the president some time. As a consequence of the president's absence from the executive mansion no appointments were announced. Many senators and congressmen climbed the stairs only to find the president away and some of them poured the subject of their errands into the ear of Private Secretary Thurber, unaware of the fact that he, too, would leave the city this evening, probably without seeing the president, for a 10 days' sojourn with his family in Michigan.

A Kiln Blown to Atoms.

WABASH, Ind., June 16.—John Arnold, proprietor of a tile kiln, five miles southwest of this city, attempted to start the fire in the kiln by throwing a piece of lighted paper into the furnace before turning on the natural gas. The evening before, however, he had not closed the valves tightly and the accumulated gas exploded with a terrific report, hurling him violently backward and tearing the kiln to atoms. Mr. Arnold was not injured.

Freight Train Wrecked.

GREENSBURG, Pa., June 16.—The axle of a car in a westbound freight train on the Pennsylvania railroad broke short off and 21 cars of merchandise were smashed and the tracks blocked with the debris. The damage to cars and contents will amount to $25,000. Several tramps riding on the train went down with the wreck, but escaped serious injury.

NIAGARA FALLS, June 16.—Infanta Eulalie and party spent the day visiting the whirlpool and making a trip under the falls. They left this morning for New York.

GERMANY'S SELECTION

Pleasant Weather Prevailed and a Heavy Vote Cast.

RETURNS ARE NOT ALL IN YET.

Seventy Districts Indicate That Thirty-Six Have Been Carried by Parties Opposed to the Army Bill, Fifteen Have Been Carried For the Parties Favoring the Bill and Nineteen Are in Doubt.

BERLIN, June 16.—Yesterday was election day throughout the German empire, and almost tropical weather prevailed everywhere in the country. This tended to bring out a heavy vote, more especially in the rural districts.

Returns from 70 districts indicate that 36 have been carried by parties opposed to the army bill, 15 have been carried for the parties favoring the bill and 19 are in doubt between the government and the opposing parties, with the chances in the majority of them strongly in favor of the government. The government parties have lost three of their former seats, two to the Richters, or Social Democrats, as the second ballot shall decide, and one to a South German Democrat. The government has won one seat from the opposition. The Social Democrats have won two seats, besides having secured many chances for new victories on the second ballot.

A curious fact of their two accomplished victories in new fields is that they won at the expense of the Richter, also enemies of the army bill, and not, as was expected at the expense of the National Liberals, the friends of the bill. Although the Social Democrats' gains are undoubtedly enormous, they will not prove so large probably as the reports so far have indicated. The returns from the cities come in first, and it is the cities that the Social Democratic candidates always run best.

The Social vote in Berlin foots up 20,000 over the vote of 1890. The Socialists have been equally successful in Hamburg and Altona. In spite of tremendous exertions the united Conservatives and Anti-Semites have lost 3,000 votes as compared with 1890, and the Radicals have lost nearly 2,000. It is stated that the Socialists are likely to win three out of four of the re-ballots against the Radicals.

In Berlin not a single candidate pledged to support the army bill has gained even the barest honor of a re-ballot.

Not 10 per cent of the vote cast in Berlin were given in favor of the army bill. Seldom has the city spoken in such emphatic tones. The provincial returns appear to be equally emphatic in the same direction. The great success of the Social Democrats has caused a profound sensation.

BETRAYED BY HIS SISTERS.

An Escaped Convict Again Placed Behind the Prison Walls.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., June 16.—August Pries, who escaped with Billy, alias "Copper" Smith, the Cincinnati crook, and Charles Edwards, from the Indiana prison south Friday, by walking out from the main entrance in citizens' attire, and in the presence of a number of prison officials, is again confined within the walls of that institution.

Pries, after his escape, went directly to his home in New Albany, where he remained in hiding. Two of Pries' sisters came to the prison and informed Deputy Warden John Howard that they could locate their brother, and were anxious that he be returned so that he could serve out the remainder of his six months' sentence.

The deputy, after having recovered from his amazement, asked where Pries could be found. The sisters replied at their home. Accordingly a guard was sent to New Albany, and on reaching Pries' home found him, after which he was placed in custody and returned.

This is the first instance where sisters ever betrayed a convict brother doing time at this prison.

Barber Attempts Suicide.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., June 16.—Hank Fleming, a veteran colored barber here, was burned out by fire recently. The loss made him despondent. Yesterday he arose, took a razor, and while sitting in an open window, cut a gash in his throat seven inches long. Fainting he fell two stories to the ground below. He is still alive, but in bad shape. He says he attempted his life because he has nothing to live for.

The Same Old Tortoise Tale.

MITCHELL, Ind., June 16.—In 1861 John T. Lamb of Bloomfield cut his name and the date on the shell of a large land tortoise, and turned it loose in the woods. About two weeks ago Jere Hatfield, while cleaning an old cemetery about a mile and a half from the same place found the animal, with the name and date still visible on its back.

Will Start Up Next Week.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 16.—The comptroller of the currency has extended the time for reopening the Capital National bank until Monday next, at which time it will resume. The bank now has $500,000 in its vaults, and the directors announce that it will have $750,000 with which to open its doors, sufficient to pay every depositor on sight.

Two Children Shocked.

BOURBON, Ind., June 16.—John Shirley's house was struck by lightning. Fire resulted, which caused $1,000 loss. Mr. Shirley's two children were shocked, but not seriously.

COLD FACTS AGAINST REPUBLICAN LIES.

The New York Tribune continues to dole out to its readers such "food for fools" as this:

Three months ago, when President Cleveland came in, business was large in volume and highly prosperous. The outgo of gold, which had begun the very month he was elected, both indicated and created some apprehension, but the business world was disposed to extend to him generous confidence and support.

To this the New York World responds as follows: "For the correction of some kinds of lying there is nothing so effective as cold facts. And the official statistics show that—

"1. During President Harrison's administration the net loss of gold to this country by export was $122,624,000.

"2. During the same period the free gold in the Treasury—the amount above the $100,000,000 reserve—was reduced from $97,874,422 (the sum turned over by President Cleveland March 4th, 1889) to $87,000—a part of the sum borrowed by Secretary Foster to keep good his reserve when he turned over a looted Treasury and a demoralized currency as a Republican legacy to his successor.

"3. During President Cleveland's former term the net gain in gold imports was $54,772,000."

The Greenup Gazette seems to lose sight of the fact that the world Greenup applies to something besides the little town where the editor of that paper resides.

Attempted Poisoning.

Garrett Parker is wanted at Sardis on a serious charge. A few days ago he was seen to empty something in a bucket on the back porch at Mr. Holman Boulden's residence and then stir it about with a dipper handle. On examination Paris green was found floating on the water and sticking to the sides of the bucket and on the handle of the dipper. The matter soon spread over town, and Parker, becoming frightened, skipped out and has not since been seen in Sardis. Billie Mastin, who lives with Mr. Boulden, and Parker have had a misunderstanding about a pistol, and the opinion is that the poison was intended for Mastin.

Death of John H. Gulick.

Died, in Terre Haute, Ind., June 14, 1893, John H. Gulick, in the eighty-fourth year of his age. John Henry Gulick was born in Easton, Penn., on the 20th of July, 1809. His parents removed to Maysville in 1818, where he married Sarah Ann Cockrell in 1830. In 1836 he removed to Mt. Carmel, Ky., where Mrs. Gulick died in 1850. During the last eight years of his life he made his home with his son, John F. Gulick, a respected and prominent citizen of Terre Haute.

Another landmark has been removed—the last honored citizen of a generation personally known to the writer has crossed to the other side and sleeps in lasting quiet, under the willows. And his was a sterling character. Strong in his friendships, firm in his convictions, honest and upright, he commanded and held the esteem of all who knew him. Being a true man, he was a good man, and the world about him was the better for the long life just ended.

DR. KILGOUR.

Citizens of New Richmond Give Fitting Testimonial of Their High Regard For Him.

Dr. Kilgour, who located in Maysville this week, comes from New Richmond, O., where the past fifteen years of his life have been spent. Sixty of the leading business and professional men of that city gave a reception and banquet in his honor the night before his departure. In its account of the affair, the News-Independent says: "The occasion was quite a token of the high appreciation in which the Doctor was held as a citizen, apart from consideration of professional, political, religious or social ties, and made to him as an all around excellent and enterprising citizen. For fifteen years has the Doctor lived among us without reproach, endearing himself to us, being among the leaders in every enterprise for promoting the interest of our community. The reception was informal, the banquet elegant and delicious. The responses to the toast, "Our Parting Guest," given by George O'Neal, master of ceremonies, at the close of a few introductory remarks, were highly complimentary. More than twenty responded, among them being Revs. Parks and Dodson, Attorneys Lennin and McMurchy, Superintendent Bolenbaugh and C. W. Dawson. The Doctor is a man of very fine feelings, and although usually a very ready off-hand speaker, when he undertook to address the company in acknowledgement of the compliment so munificently paid him, he was overcome by his emotions. The affair had been a complete surprise to him, and the manifest high esteem in which he was held by so many of the best citizens came to him in a realization that was almost overpowering. He recovered, though, and talked very touchingly of his life among us, and of his kindly feeling towards our community."

Pollitt Against Bland.

In affirming this case taken up from the Lewis Circuit Court, the Court of Appeals says:

First—In this action involving the true location of the division line between adjoining tracts of land in which defendant also claims title by adverse possession, the judgment of the Chancellor in favor of plaintiff is fairly supported by the proof.

Second—As plaintiff claimed the land in controversy as one of the heirs of her father, the court properly allowed the other heirs to be made parties and to quit-claim in favor of plaintiff, it being doubtful whether the boundary allotted to plaintiff in the division of his father's lands embraced the land sued for, although manifestly so intended.

JUNE WEDDINGS.

Marriage of Mrs. Mary Poyntz and Colonel M. H. Crump—Liggett-Armstrong.

The marriage of Mrs. Mary Underwood Poyntz and Colonel M. H. Crump was solemnized at Bowling Green, Ky., last evening. Mrs. Poyntz is the widow of the late Samuel Poyntz, who moved from Maysville to Colorado a few years ago, where he died rather suddenly some time afterwards. She is a member of the Underwood family, being a daughter of ex-Congressman Warren Underwood.

Colonel Crump is Inspector General of the State Guards, and is at present in charge of Kentucky's mining display at the World's Fair. He has a wide acquaintance throughout the State. The wedding was a quiet home affair.

LIGGETT-ARMSTRONG.

A special from Ripley says the Liggett-Armstrong wedding Wednesday evening was the prettiest that has occurred there for some time. The bride, Miss Mary Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Armstrong, is one of Ripley's fairest flowers, while the groom, Mr. W. Wirt Liggett, now of Chicago, is a civil engineer of ability, and a son of the late Captain Liggett, U. S. A. The ushers were Messrs. Frank A. Benua, Dr. A. M. Francis, James H. Gilliland and L. Vern Williams. The groom's best man was Mr. Fred Everett Ross, and the maid of honor Miss Carrie Butterfield, of Cincinnati. The bride was attired in a dress of beuglaine Francaise, en train, with high neck and long sleeves trimmed in deep point lace. Miss Butterfield was lovely in a dress of white silk crepe with satin ribbon and point d'esprit.

Always on Time.

During the month of April the C. and O. made the unprecedented record of bringing its F. F. V. limited into Cincinnati every day on time. This is remarkable, as the train was run a distance of 828 miles from New York to Cincinnati. In the month of May the same train reached Cincinnati twenty-eight days on time, and the other three days only a few minutes late, never once missing connections. The Washington Fast Line during the month of May reached Cincinnati on time twenty-five times, and an average of fifteen minutes late six times. East bound, the vestibuled train leaving Cincinnati at 8 a. m., arrived at Washington thirty days on time, and the F. F. V., leaving Cincinnati at 6:15 p. m., arrived in Washington twenty-nine days on time and arrived in New York thirty days on time and once about an hour late.—Enquirer.

DR. ORR disappeared from Butler, Ky., several weeks ago, and about the same time Mrs. Bonar, wife of a K. C. employe, also left home. They are still missing. Orr left a wife and nine children. Mrs. Bonar took her youngest child with her.

Why pay from 15 to 20 per cent. more for watches when you can buy a fine gold watch at P. J. Murphy's, the jeweler, and save that difference? No better goods made, and I guarantee to save you the difference stated above. Now is the time to buy. Successor to Hopper & Murphy.

THURSDAY evening closed Mr. C. B. Ryan's twelfth year's service with the C. and O. In this time he has been promoted from ticket stock-room clerk to the Assistant General Passenger Agency. No better man could be found for the position. This he has demonstrated. Naturally he is solid with the C. and O. management.

MISS ANNIE ALLISON, a prominent young school mistress of Adams County, O., suicided at Youngsville, near Winchester one evening this week by drowning herself in a cistern. For several months the unfortunate young lady had been in poor health, being troubled with short but frequent periods of mental aberration, and it is thought the rash act was committed while she was in this condition.

MR. W. P. WALKER, JR., Freight Traffic Manager of the C. and O., will sail for Europe June 28, to be gone about two months on business for his road. He will be accompanied by Vice President Oscar Murray of the Big Four. A few months ago M. E. Ingalls, President of the C. and O., organized an ocean steamship line, and in three weeks the first vessel will be delivered and the remaining five at periods during the summer. This company will be operated in conjunction with the C. and O. The traffic connections in Europe have been arranged, but the detail work has not yet been completed, and this is the commission entrusted to Messrs. Murray and Walker. They will appoint agents in all the large cities of Europe and secure schedules of steamer and rail connections. Mr. Walker is a son of Captain W. P. Walker, of this city, and is rapidly working his way to the front in railway circles.

THE BIG CIRCUS.

It Arrived Early This Morning—Will Exhibit This Afternoon and Evening.

John Robinson's big show came in early this morning from Carlisle where it exhibited yesterday.

The white tents have been pitched near the street car stables in the Sixth ward, where performances will be given this afternoon and to-night.

The show had a rather rough experience last evening at Carlisle. The tents were in a creek bottom. During the performance a storm struck the place and the rain fell in torrents. The creek overflowed flooding the tents and dressing rooms to a depth of two or three feet, and damaging the wardrobes fully $1,000.

Jersey Cattle.

In the competitive test of breeds now being held at the World's Fair, the Jerseys for the fifteen days cheese test, just completed, gave over 1,000 pounds more milk than the Shorthorns and 2,000 more than the Guernseys, the two being the only breeds that would compete with the Jersey. The Jerseys made over two hundred pounds more cheese and tested a per cent. of fat in milk higher than either of the other breeds.

CRISIS IN SAMOA.

The United States Authorities May Be Called to Settle the Trouble.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Advices received by Secretary Gresham from Samoa are to the effect that affairs there have reached a crisis and it may be that the United States will again be obliged to intervene between the parties. Ever since the establishment of the tripartite protectorate over Samoa the islands have been disturbed and the best efforts of the representatives of the United States, Great Britain and Germany have failed to improve the situation.

First there was trouble growing out of alleged arbitrary acts of Cedar-kranz, the Swede, who was selected by the parties to the Berlin treaty as the chief of the Samoan land court. Then there was a financial tangle curiously like our own, resulting from the attempt of the German adviser of the king to force the people to accept German thalers at a fixed rate; serious discontent was shown at the excessive burden of taxation, and finally rebellion has broken out.

Mataafa, who acted as king during King Malietoa's enforced absence, preceding the Berlin conference, has never admitted that he has ceased to be king, and taking up a strong position on one of the lesser lands of the Samoa group has really maintained himself in the native regal style. He has always had numerous adherents, and of late the troubles that King Malietoa has encountered in the effort to govern his kingdom have driven many more of the inhabitants over to the side of Mataafa. This disaffection has become so serious in extent that Malietoa has felt it to be necessary to crush out the aspirant for the throne and the advices received at the state department indicate that open warfare is now to begin.

The United States, Great Britain and Germany have obligated themselves by the treaty of Berlin to preserve the autonomy of the islands and to maintain order and peace. Under this agreement it has been the custom for the three nations to take turns in keeping a warship at Apia, or in the vicinity and it so happens that just now the German vessel is on guard. In this crisis, however, it is desirable that more force should be at hand, and it may be that one of the United States warships will be sent to Samoa. At present the nearest ships are the Boston and the Adams, now at Honolulu, but in view of the uncertain condition of affairs there and the importance of American interests involved, it is improbable that more than one at most will be spared.

Ferryboat Sinks.

LONG ISLAND CITY, L. I., June 16.—The double-decked ferryboat F. P. James of the College Point and New York Ferry company was sunk in the fog Wednesday night off Berrin's island, in Long Island sound. The boat was on her 9 o'clock trip from New York. There were no passengers or teams on board. The boat lies in about 20 feet of water. The captain and crew of the vessel are still on board.

Reducing the Payroll.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Yesterday the names of 67 clerks were dropped from the rolls of the general land office. Of this number six were from Class 4, compensation $1,500 per annum; 19 from Class 3, $1,600; 16 from Class 2, $1,400; 10 from Class 1, $1,200; eight from the $1,000 class and eight from the copyist class of $900. This reduction was made obligatory by the legislative appropriation bill passed by the last congress.

Diamond Dealers Assign.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Charles Cottier and Jean Cottier, composing the firm of C. Cottier & Son, dealers in diamonds, at 171 Broadway, have assigned to Samuel Greenbaum, without preferences. The liabilities, it is said, exceed $100,000. The assets will at least equal the liabilities.

Friest Drowned.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Rev. Father Charles B. McKenna, aged 26, attached to St. Ann's church, was drowned in North river yesterday afternoon while trying to make a landing with a rowboat at the foot of West One Hundred and First street. His cousin, Mrs. Margaret Burchal, formerly Miss Margaret Curley, of Homestead, Pa., who accompanied him, was also drowned.

Killed a "Witch."

ATLANTA, June 16.—Wesley Shaw, at Buchanan, Ga., ordered an old woman, believed by the negroes to be a witch, off his land. She followed him to "pick up his tracks." He, to prevent being bewitched, attempted to cut her "witch vein." Instead he struck her jugular vein and she is dying, and he is in jail.

A Mother's Mistake.

CHILLICOTHE, O., June 16.—An infant child of Mrs. William West of this city was bitten by a pet dog a day or so ago, and with motherly instinct she picked up the babe and sucked the poison from the wound, the result of which was a rapid swelling of the lips and glands in her mouth.

Boy's Eye Knocked Out.

CANTON, O., June 16.—Samuel Hagen and John Gross, two little boys, became involved in an altercation, when Gross, who is the older, picked up a club and knocked his companion's eye out.

Chicago Bank to Resume.

CHICAGO, June 16.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Chemical National bank, it was decided by a practically unanimous decision to resume business. The conditions laid down by Comptroller Eckels as necessary to be agreed to before the bank will be allowed to open its doors were accepted, and steps were taken at once toward reorganization.

Typographical Union Officers.

CHICAGO, June 16.—The convention of the International Typographical union elected the following officers: President, W. B. Prescott, Toronto; first vice president, J. W. Hopkins, Pittsburg; second vice president, H. C. MacFarland, Washington; third vice president, W. B. Lewis, Chicago; secretary treasurer, A. W. Giles, St. Louis.
